

2008 Call for Abstracts

RN-AIM Research Council

Deepen our Knowledge! Broaden our Horizons!

Present your Research Poster or Evidence-based Practice Innovation at RN-AIM's Third Annual Conference & Assembly
Thursday October 2 &
Friday October 3, 2008
Crystal Mountain
Thompsonville, Michigan

Attention staff nurses, students, educators, advanced practice nurses, clinical nurse specialists, administrators, researchers or any nurse who has a research idea or evidence-based project you would like to share with others – you are encouraged to submit an abstract.

Abstracts of 250 words should be submitted electronically by July 1, 2008
to Elizabeth Galvin at NursingResearch@RN-AIM.org
Notification of acceptance will take place by August 8, 2008.

Posters may address either of the following:

- | | |
|---|--|
| 1. Research | 2. Evidence-Based Practice |
| <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Completed• In Progress | <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Pilot Projects• Clinical Innovation |

Please use the following format for submission:

- Statement of the Clinical Problem
- Literature Review
- Performance Improvement Data (if available)
- Implementation (what was done)
- Outcome
- Recommendations for further study

*Remember to include your name, phone number, e-mail and place of employment/work when submitting your abstract. Indicate how you would like to be contacted (e.g., phone or email).
For more information go to www.RN-AIM.org Thank you.*